DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD
WATCH ASSOCIATION

SEPTEMBER 2013

From the DANWA President:

Hello everyone,

Next month the city should start receiving the new police cars that were ordered. The new cars will all be the traditional black and white cars. These new cars were paid for by the renewal of the sales tax that was approved awhile back. The Police Department has also hired another female Police Officer giving the city two female Officers. So, if you see her around town, give her a wave.

Some upcoming events that I would like to mention that are happening this month:

The City Wide Garage Sale will be held September 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th. You must obtain a permit from the city to have a sale but the permits are free!

The Del Aire Neighborhood Watch Volunteer Appreciation Dinner will be held on September 19th at the Midwest City Golden Corral at 6 PM. The dinner is for those individuals that volunteer of their time in support of the Neighborhood Watch.

The next Free Dump will be held on September 27th, 28th and 29th at the John Smith Sports Complex near NE 4th and Sunnyslane. The hours will be Friday 1 to 5, Saturday 9 to 5 and Sunday 1 to 5. Please note that this is the next to last Free Dump until next spring; the last one being in October.

Coming up next month; The Del City National Night Out will be held on October 19th at Eagle Lake. There will be more information on this next month. Be Safe!

The grass may be greener on the other side of the fence, but it still needs to be cut!

9/13

Ladies and Gentlemen, please help keep Del City cleaner when you are mowing. Mow the grass clippings where they will wind up in your yard not in the street. EPA has regulations as to what is washed in to the creeks and grass is NOT one of them so please be reminded that you should blow your clippings back in your yard, or bag them, and if you have a yard keeper, REMIND THEM TO NOT BLOW THE GRASS INTO THE STREET. That goes for businesses too!

Thanks, from some concerned citizens and the City of Del City.

Ways to help protect your home from burglars (Continued from last month)

#7. A Trimmed and Tidy Yard.

Untrimmed trees and shrubs provide good hiding places for burglars and can obscure their entry into your home.

To get a better sense of what she means, Miller suggests the following: “stand out on your front sidewalk and take an objective look at your house. Do you have trees or shrubs providing hiding places for someone?” If so, Miller recommends trimming tree branches up to six feet from the ground and shrubs down to below window sills.

A shaggy lawn—especially one that’s usually trimmed—can also indicate to a burglar that you’re likely on vacation, or simply away on business for a prolonged period of time. Consider hiring someone to mow your lawn if you’re going to be out of town for more than a week.

#8. The Appearance that Someone is Home.

Burglars know your routine, and when there’s a break in that routine—like when you’re on vacation—it’s a signal that your home is clear for a break-in.

With that in mind, Miller says that “the goal when you’re gone is for your home to appear lived in.”

To accomplish this , Miller suggests using motion-sensor lights and timers on your radio and TV to simulate occupancy and create the illusion that you’re home.

Corvallis, Oregon home insurance professional, Bonnie Lundy, Agrees: “Anything you can do to make your home look occupied while you’re away is a good thing—and timed electronics are great for that.”

She does caution, however, that burglars are aware people use timers, and recommends some variation to the pattern.

#9. Helpful Neighbors.

We just talked about making your home look lived in while you’re away. And while simulating occupancy can get tricky, the good news is you can enlist help. The best recruit” Your neighbors.

Whenever you’re away, Lundy highly recommends asking your neighbors to get your mail and newspapers, and check for any deliveries. Miller also recommends asking them to put garbage bags in your garbage can.

And that’s not all. You should also “ask a trusted neighbor to park their vehicle in your driveway occasionally while you’re out of town,?”

Any sign of activity at your home is enough to deter most burglars—who count on an empty house. (((END)))
