CERT General Training Meeting, at 7:00 pm, Del City Community Center, second Tuesday

Hello everyone,

The crime stats for the month of October look good with the exception of the larcenies. There were 8 in the neighborhood not counting business or apartment complexes. This category will remain high until residents refrain from leaving their garage doors open and unattended and stop leaving items out in the yard.

Coming up in December we will have our Officer elections. This is a great opportunity to help out the DANWA organization by interjecting new ideas and leadership. Pat Satterwhite has graciously volunteered to be our nomination committee for the elections. To fill any of these Officer positions, contact Pat Satterwhite at 672-0409. All members are eligible, welcome and encouraged to fill these positions.

Thanksgiving has passed and now is the season to shop. Some have probably already started your Christmas shopping. There are a few things I would like you to keep in mind as you go about your shopping and holiday preparations. Keep in mind that it only takes seconds to become a victim. If possible, do not carry large amounts of cash, especially you ladies. Criminals, snatching purses, will increase as they hope to score big cash from shoppers. Ladies, as you walk through the parking lots, walk to one side of the drive and carry your purse securely under the arm away from the drive traffic. That way someone cannot lean out of a passing vehicle and grab your purse as they pass. While shopping in stores, do not leave your purse in your shopping cart; keep it with you at all times. Your purse can be stolen from your cart as you have your back turned to your cart looking at something.

While shopping, do not leave the items you have already purchased, visible in your vehicle while you continue shopping. Put them in the trunk, out of sight. It takes little effort to bust out a window and grab what's inside.

I know that it looks great to have your Christmas tree sitting in front of your living room window with all the presents spread out underneath. I see this a lot as I patrol the neighborhood in the evening during December. This makes it easy for criminals to decide which houses to hit. Some of those items can be quite valuable. Might I suggest that you keep the valuable items put up someplace out of sight; then wrap up some empty boxes as a display. You can use the wrapped "presents" over and over again by storing them with your tree for another year. As you can guess, to kick in a door, grab some boxes and run, even if you have an alarm system, does not take long.

And then when Christmas has passed, (or any other time of the year for that matter) do not take the box for that new computer, HD TV, surround sound system or whatever; fill it with wrappings and place it on the curb for several days for the trash man to pick up. You just notified any criminal driving thru the neighborhood that there is a new whatever sitting in your home just waiting for them to help themselves to. Most burglars do not care what the item is; they are only interested in the money they can get for it. Just take the box or boxes, break them down, tie or tape them together with a blank inside facing out, and leave them for the trash pickup.

Here's wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a safe and Happy New Year!

Telephone Alert — Don't Get Scammed By Text Phishing

Here is a new twist on the old phishing scam. Now, individuals are receiving telephone text messages alerting them that their debit card has been deactivated. with instructions to call a certain phone number to get their account opened again. Unless you have signed up for this type of service with a financial institution, you can be pretty certain such a text message is a phishing scam. A positive indication of a scam would be if you are contacted in any manner and instructed to contact a financial institution regarding your account and you do not have an account or any other form of relationship with that institution.

WINTER is HERE

Winter is here, don't forget to unhook your water hoses from the spigot, many times they are left hooked up and a good freeze comes along and causes the water to freeze within the spigot and next thing you know after it all thaws out, you have a leak in the wall because the spigot cracked from the freeze.

Don't forget that it takes just as much time and space to stop a four wheel drive vehicle as it does a two wheel drive on ice and snow.

Don't forget to feed and water the birds.

Merry Christmas from all of us to YOU all.....
