APRIL 2017

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

You have often heard (read) us (DANWA) ask for your help or input, well I have a twist for you. Let me explain how DANWA may be able to help you.

As Spring Time approaches, some of you may be eager to put on the ole walking shoes and get out for some fresh air. Well, let us help you. We will furnish you a stack of 20 to 40 newsletters, like this one, then you may stroll up and down a street in our area delivering them. Now I grant you, it only takes about 30 minutes to an hour, and it's only once a month, but it's a start.

Not into walking? Maybe this next suggestion is more your style:

A recent study dealing with cell phones and other electronic devices had a couple of interesting points:

1. On average, individuals who were forced to go without their electronics for just 2 hours experienced the same anxiety level as if confronted with a terrorist attack.
2. Most people spend 12 hours a day on their electronic devices. That's more time than you work, sleep, or combination of other activities.
3. Addiction?

The suggestion was made that we need to wean ourselves off of these devices, and that's where DANWA can help.

- A. Our patrollers go out and drive around our neighborhood for 1 to 2 hours at a time, keeping an eye out for suspicious activities. Now since you are supposed to keep both hands on the wheel while driving, and texting while driving is illegal, we can help you break your addiction.
- B. Most therapist will tell you that we need to put away our devices and spend more quality time in one on one conversations with our spouse and friends. Some of our patrollers will go out in pairs. Not only does it put an extra set of eyes and ears in the vehicle, but you can talk/listen to each other.

Of course there is that part, where by letting DANWA help you, you get to fulfill that part of your civic duty by providing some very useful and needed community service. So well done.

DANWA has a host of other programs, committees, and projects you may find interesting. Join us on April 10th to find our more

May God bless and keep you and yours.

If you would like to be a block captain and deliver newsletters once a month

Need block captains for:

Ridgeway (Vickie to Del View, to creek)

Elmview (Vickie to Ridgeway)

Contact Steve Gold 670-2878

Angela Dr. (Angela Circle to Oakbrook)

Contact Yvonne Hirsch 670-3971

Just a little bit of volunteering won't hurt much. Some blocks only have 20 homes to deliver to, most are less than 25 homes. If you can help with any of these please contact any of the District Captains above. It's really not hard to volunteer one day out of the month and it proves to be good exercise by delivering the newsletter door to door for your particular block or blocks. You might even meet your neighbors.

You don't have to be a member to volunteer to deliver the newsletters.

More Flag Etiquette

Displaying the Flag Outdoors

When it is displayed from the same flagpole with another flag—of a state, community, society or Scout unit—the flag of the United States must always be at the top except that the church pennant may be flown above the flag during church services for Navy personnel when conducted by a Naval chaplain on a ship at sea.

When flown with flags of states, communities, or societies on separate flag poles which are of the same height and in a straight line, the flag of the United States is always placed in the position of honor—to its own right.

- The other flags may be smaller but none may be larger.
- No other flag ever should be placed above it.
- The U.S. Flag is always the first raised and last lowered.

When flown with the national banner of other countries, each flag must be displayed from a separate pole of the same height. Each flag should be the same size. They should be raised and lowered simultaneously. The flag of one nation may not be displayed above that of another nation.

Displaying the Flag Indoors

When on display, the flag is accorded the place of honor, always positioned to its own right. Place it to the right of the speaker or staging area or sanctuary. Other flags should be to the left.

When one flag is used with the flag of the United States of America and the staffs are crossed, the flag of the United States is placed on its own right with its staff in front of the other flag.

When displaying the flag against a wall, vertically or horizontally, the flag's union (stars) should be at the top, to the flag's own right, and to the observer's left.

Parading and Saluting the Flag

When carried in a procession, the flag should be to the right of the marchers. When other flags are carried, the flag of the United States may be centered in front of the others or carried to their right.

When the flag passes in a procession, or when it is hoisted or lowered, all should stand, face the flag, and salute.

The Salute

To salute, all persons come to attention. All persons present in uniform should render the military salute. Members of the armed forces and veterans who are present but not in uniform may render the military salute. Citizens not in uniform salute by placing their right hand over the heart and men with head cover should remove it and hold it to the left shoulder, hand over the heart.

The Pledge of Allegiance and National Anthem

The pledge of allegiance should be rendered by standing at attention, facing the flag, and saluting.

When the national anthem is played or sung, citizens should stand at attention and salute at the first note and hold the salute through the last note. The salute is directed to the flag, if displayed, otherwise to the music.

Things you might not know about the lowering and raising of the flag:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| On Memorial day the flag is raised to full staff and lowered to half staff until noon, then raised back to full staff. |  |
| Always raise it rapidly and lower it slowly.   | On special days it may be flown at half-staff.                 |
| Do not let the flag touch the ground.  | Do not fly the flag upside down unless there is an emergency.  |
| Do not use the flag as clothing.   | Do not use it as a cover.                                      |
| Do not carry the flag flat, or carry things in it.   | Do not store the flag where it can get dirty.                  |
| Do not draw on, or otherwise mark the flag.  | Do not fasten it or tie it back, always allow it to fall free. |
