DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD
 WATCH ASSOCIATION

FEBRUARY 2019

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

As you can tell by the insert, it's time again to renew your DANWA membership. Any household residing in a single family residence may be a member of DANWA, whether you own or rent the home. Please be sure to fill out the form completely. (all information is confidential and kept in a safe place and is only used in case we need to contact you for an emergency). I'm also asking that you use this opportunity to submit any opinions, suggestions, or questions. You may use the back of the form or on a separate sheet of paper.

Whenever I can, I like to hand out an "At-A-Boy". In this case it goes out to some of you, DANWA members (and non-members) who attended our meetings this past year (2018). Over the past twelve months we had almost a twenty three percent increase in attendance of our monthly meetings compared to the same period of 2017. no when you look at the actual numbers there is still a lot of room for improvement, but hey, I'll take it. So Well Done Attendees. Let's see if we can do a repeat in 2019.

From time to time I receive comment from various individuals, telling me how much they enjoy reading the Defender. I will thank them for their input, and is usually the case, discover that they are referring to the back page. So let me explain. The only part I take credit for is the part of the front page. The credit for the layout, advertisements, and especially the back page goes to our editor Joe Satterwhite, and what great job he does. Thank you Joe!

May God bless and keep you and yours.

Ron McCall, DANWA President, 677-7923 danwapres@cox.net

NEED SOME OF YOU YOUNG FOLKS TO HELP

Come on, be a part of DANWA, just a little bit of volunteering won't hurt much. Some blocks only have 20 homes to deliver to, most are less than 25 homes. If you can help with any of these please contact any of the District Captains above. It's really not hard to volunteer one day out of the month and it proves to be good exercise by delivering the newsletter door to door for your particular block or blocks. You might even meet your neighbors.

You don't have to be a member to volunteer to deliver the newsletters.

EATING IN THE FIFTIES

Pasta had not been invented. It was macaroni or spaghetti. Curry was a surname.
Taco? Never saw one till I was 15. All chips were plain. Oil was for lubricating, fat was for cooking.
Tea was made in a teapot using tea leaves and never green. Cubed sugar was regarded as posh.
Chickens didn't have fingers in those days. None of us had ever heard of yogurt.
Healthy food consisted of anything edible! Cooking outside was called camping.
Seaweed was not a recognized food. 'Kebab' was not even a word... never mind a food.
Sugar enjoyed a good press in those days, and was regarded as being white gold.
Prunes were medicinal and stewed. Surprisingly Muesli was readily available. It was called cattle feed.
Pineapples came in chunks or were round with a hole in the middle, in a tin; we had only ever seen a picture of a real one.
Water came out of the tap. If someone had suggested bottling it and charging more than gasoline for it, they would have become a laughing stock.

There were three things that we never ever had on/at our table in the fifties . . . elbows, hats and cell phones!
.....and there was always two choices for each meal...

"Take it" or Leave it"

WE HAD A GREAT LIFE.....Thanks to Good Parents.....

A Marital Misunderstanding

Wife's Diary:

Tonight, I thought my husband was acting weird. We had made plans to meet at a nice restaurant for dinner. I was shopping with my friends all day long, so I thought he was upset at the fact that I was a bit late, but he made no comment on it.

Conversation wasn't flowing, so I suggested that we go somewhere quiet so we could talk. He agreed, but he didn't say much.

I asked him what was wrong; He said, "nothing." I asked him if it was my fault that he was upset. He said he wasn't upset, that it had nothing to do with me, and not to worry about it.

On the way home, I told him that I loved him. He smiled slightly, and kept driving. I can't explain his behavior. I don't know why he didn't say, "I love you, too."

When we got home, I felt as if I had lost him completely, as if he wanted nothing to do with me anymore. He just sat there quietly, and watched TV. He continued to seem distant and absent.

Finally, with silence all around us, I decided to go to bed. About 15 minutes later, he came to bed.

But I still felt that he was distracted, and his thoughts were somewhere else. He fell asleep; I cried.

I don't know what to do. I'm almost sure that his thoughts are with someone else. My life is a disaster.

Husband's Diary:

A one-foot putt..
