DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD
 WATCH ASSOCIATION

OCTOBER 2020

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

We had another fine DANWA meeting on September 14. Attendance was good, yet we were still able to follow the health guidelines set forth by the city, as we shall continue to do.

Items of business included partial funding for: the pregame dinner for the Del City High School football team, the DCPD Shop with a Cop, and the Tinker Food Bank. We still need to appropriate the donation to the Calvary Church for the use of the Youth Center for our monthly meetings.

Normally, at this time, we are making plans for our annual “Appreciation Dinner” to honor all of the DANWA volunteers (Block Captains who deliver the Defender newsletter, DANWA Patrollers with their extra eyes and ears, Committee Members, DANWA Officers, etc). Historically we have 40 to 50 individuals in attendance (and that’s not all of those eligible). Regrettably, because of the COVID-19 restrictions we have not been able to secure a venue that can handle those numbers. So at this time the Dinner has been put on hold. We will continue to re-evaluate this situations.

The curb side bulk trash pickup is still scheduled for October 19th through October 23rd.

The City of Del City is planning something a little different this year for Halloween, October 31st. They are putting together a “Trunk of Treat” event at Ray Trent Park from 5 pm to 9 pm. Food trucks, free hot dogs and lots of candies will be available. Visit the Del City web page for more information. www.cityofdelcity.com.

And now the obvious. We have a National and State Election coming up on November 3, 2020. As in the past, because of my position with DANWA, I cannot and will not publicly advocate for or against any candidate or issue. I can and will say that I feel that it’s every eligible voter’s right and obligation to vote and they should do so.

May God Bless and Keep You and Yours. See you on October 12th.

Bless the GRANDPARENTS

Recently I went to see an elderly friend of mine.
 She was babysitting her couple of weeks old grandson.
 'May I see the new baby?' I asked.
 'Not yet,' she said. 'I'll make coffee and we can talk first.'
 Thirty minutes passed, and I asked, 'May I see the new baby now?'
 'No, not yet,' she said.
 After another few minutes elapsed, I asked again, 'May I see the baby now?'
 'No, not yet,' replied my friend.
 Growing very impatient, I asked, 'Well, when can I see the baby?'
 'WHEN HE CRIES!' she told me.
 'When he cries?' I demanded. 'Why do I have to wait until he cries?'
 'BECAUSE I FORGOT WHERE I PUT HIM, OK?!'
 Take care
 Happy Grandparents Day (sorry I am late with it)

If you can spare some time, we can use block captains to help deliver the DANWA newsletter. Some blocks only have 20 homes to deliver to, most are less than 25 homes. If you can help with any of these please contact any of the District Captains above. It takes me about 15 minutes to deliver 23.

You don't have to be a member to volunteer to deliver the newsletters.

REWARD $$$

My wife asked me to take her to one of those restaurants where they make the food right in front of you. So I took her to Subway and that's how the fight started.

If it is true that stress brings on weight loss, why am I not invisible?

Me: (sobbing my heart out, eyes swollen, nose red) ... I can't see you anymore... I am not going to let you hurt me like this again!

Trainer: It was a sit up. You did one sit up.

I don't think the therapist is supposed to say "WOW" that many times in your first session but here we are.

Told my wife I wanted to be cremated. She made me an appointment for Tuesday.

It's been a strange day! First I found hat full of money. Then I was chased by an angry man with a guitar....
