DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD
 WATCH ASSOCIATION

NOVEMBER 2020

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

With the time delay between me writing and you reading this newsletter, the National / State elections are probably over, and since I'm not able to predict the future, I can't comment on who won / lost. Let me just say that as Americans we have a responsibility to accept the outcomes, respect the Office, and move on with our lives. At the same time, I will say, I'm DAM glad all of those political commercials are over. What ever happened to truth in advertising? I understand that negative sells better than positive, but I'm reminded of the saying; If you are the one slinging all of the mud, you are also the one standing in the mud pit.

And just when you thought that the elections were all over, let me remind you that the DANWA election of officers is coming in December. There are rumors floating around that we may have some vacancies upcoming on the Executive Board so this may be your opportunity. It only requires a few hours per month and as you can tell in my case, doesn't require a whole lot of talent. Seriously, if you are interested in running for any of the offices, contact:
 Joe Satterwhite 405-850-2177 or Rose Mary Bolton 405-570-2833
 Or any of the current DANWA Officers

With all of the constraints dealing with social gathering, this year's Holiday Festivities will present some unusual challenges. I trust in your abilities to protect yourself and others so we will be able to all celebrate the future in good health.

Have a HAPPY THANKSGIVING !
 May God Bless and Keep you and yours

See you November 9, 2020

Ron McCall DANWA President (405) 677-7923 danwapres@cox.net

Hopefully this will reach you before election time. Regardless of what anyone says, your ONE vote counts, whether it be for or against the issue.

Get out and vote!! If you haven't already...

Hopefully it will be a little while longer but it is getting time to think ahead—unhook your hoses from the spigots before it freezes because they will certainly freeze up if left attached and it isn't an easy job to replace the spigot.

Be aware the spigot will freeze when it gets below 32°

Think about your animals who reside outside and make sure they have plenty of water that isn't frozen and a shelter of sorts.

The Del City Library is coming right along, parking will be finished soon. As far as I know they are still on schedule and just discovered they are a little under budget. WOW

Happy 99th Birthday to Eva Beebe—Love you Mom.

Our most sincere condolences to the families of Bob Brown. It has been an honor and pleasure to have known him. Thank you for your service to the United States of America. Until we meet again Sir. So long.

8 Tactics Scammers Use To Trick Credit Union/Bank Members

Scammers like to prey on people's vulnerabilities, such as financial hardship and fear. Being proactive is not only the best way to protect you, but also the best way to help your credit union/bank staff be prepared to assist those who have been targeted by scammers. Here are eight common practices that scammers like to use to try to fool you and commit fraud:

1. Faking an emergency. Scammers will pretend to represent an official organization and call, text or email people to demand immediate money for fake issues.
2. Expressing that resistance is ineffective. Once a scammer has created the emergency and caused panic, they will reinforce that there is nothing else the victim can do but hand over money to remedy the situation.
3. Rewarding cooperation with encouraging comments. Scammers will act like they are trying to offer help and a way out of the emergency that would provide relief to the victim, and attempt to play the part of a trusted friend.
4. Not allowing victims to hang up until they pay up. Scammers will say that it is a one-time-only opportunity for the victim to take action to avoid further consequences.
5. Using official sounding titles and names for ordinary things. Scammers will try to sound impressive to gain a person's trust by using official sounding titles and names for merchants and everyday items.
6. Stating they are not asking for personal information upfront. In an attempt to have the victim let down their guard, they may initially say that they are not looking to obtain personal information.
7. Signaling to members they are being recorded. Scammers may say the phone call is recorded and monitored by the IRS, or another official entity, to try to sound legitimate.
8. Exploiting member engagement. Once scammers have their victim hooked, they may transfer the call to another fake agent to try to further legitimize the call.
