JUNE 2021

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends and Neighbors,

How did you enjoy the Armed Forces Day – Shriners Parade? At one hundred and two entries, (we actually ended up with more than that but they lost count), it was the largest yet. I want to thank all of the volunteers who helped with the traffic control.

With Memorial Day just behind us, you would think that we are all caught up on cookouts, but not this group. At 6 pm on June 14th, just before our DANWA meeting we are going to do it again. Hamburgers, hot dogs, potato salad, chips, beans, drinks, and all of the fixings are on the menu. What a way to kick off the summer.

Unfortunately, Mike Cantrell, Del City Manager, was not able to join us at the May 10th DANWA General Meeting but we were able to reschedule for the June 14th meeting.

In May we celebrated Mother’s Day, and now on June 20th to say

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

This month’s quote comes from Mother Teresa:
Love is a fruit in season at all times, and within reach of every hand.

May God bless and keep you and yours

Ron McCall DANWA President (405) 677-7923 danwapres@cox.net

I have been lax in welcoming the new neighbors to our community. SO, here it is “WELCOME” to our square mile, we hope you enjoy and get acquainted with your new neighbors.

RAIN???? Yep, we had some!!!

I’ve been told the paper tag is for 30 days.....don’t be surprised if you get a ticket..... you had 30 days to get it!!!!

Ed.

If you can spare some time, we can use block captains to help deliver the DANWA newsletter. Some blocks only have 20 homes to deliver to, most are less than 25 homes. If you can help with any of these please contact any of the District Captains above. It takes me about 15 minutes to deliver 23 and I get a little exercise,.

You don't have to be a member to volunteer to deliver the newsletters.

Insanity* Is Doing the Same Thing Over and Over Again and Expecting Different Results.

If you have ever been pulled over by a police officer, while driving, your first reaction and you may have even asked: "Why did you stop me? What was I doing wrong? So here are some of the top reasons for this interaction and why it matters.

First on the list is SPEEDING, especially excessive speeding: Fact – the faster you are traveling, the less time you have to react to situations around you. Plus, if you are involved in an accident, the faster you're going the more severe / deadly the results.

Second is running a RED LIGHT or STOP SIGN. While there are those who do this on purpose, more than likely, you committed this infraction because you were not paying attention to your surroundings i.e. using your cell phone, talking to a fellow passenger, singing along with the radio, or just plain old day dreaming.

Third: is non-working head lights, tail lights, and turn signals. This is a safety issue dealing with how you are seen by other drivers. If your brake lights or turn signals aren't working, the driver behind you may not realize your intentions until it's too late. If your head / tail lights aren't working they may not see you in time to avoid you.

Expired tag - This is often a red flag to a police officer that the vehicle is either un-insured or stolen.

Improper / frequent change of lanes or weaving: The law requires that you signal 100 ft. before you change lanes. If you are making a turn, you are supposed to turn into the lane nearest to you (inside-left / outside – right). Infractions under the category may indicate intoxication of some sort.

All of these have to do with public safety, not just yours but others, and involve some degree of common sense. Drive Safe. (Thanks to Lt Brad Cowden for his assistance with this article)
